Family Law

BIOGRAPHY

Jenna Shapiro is an accomplished family law attorney who skillfully guides clients through the complex financial, child custody, and logistical challenges of divorce. She provides tailored solutions that meet the unique needs of each client.

With extensive experience in all aspects of matrimonial law, from inception through trial and post-judgment litigation, Jenna is well-versed in handling a wide array of family law issues. As a certified mediator, she effectively engages with opposing counsel to negotiate favorable settlements for her clients.

Recognizing that each divorce is unique, Jenna begins by carefully listening to her clients. She then collaborates with them to develop a customized strategy that aligns with their family's specific needs. Her expertise encompasses child support, alimony, equitable distribution, valuation of assets and businesses, custody, parenting time, and domestic violence matters.

Jenna's approach is client-focused, ensuring that every strategy is designed to achieve the best possible outcome for the families she represents.
